How to apply and register

Postgraduate programmes in Information Security

You can either apply online (www.londonexternal.ac.uk/prospective_students/postgraduate/holloway/info_security/apply_online.shtml) or by post, using this application form. Do not submit an online application and one by post. If you do, this will inevitably delay both applications.

If you decide to apply online, please ensure you print off (or refer to the 'Guidance notes for applications' (Postgraduate) (www.londonexternal.ac.uk/forms/online_application_forms/guidance_notes.pdf) before you complete the online application.

If you prefer to send your application by post, please follow the instructions below.

Stage 1

Complete the application form and submit it by post (not by fax), together with all the documentation listed on page 7 of the form, to:

Postgraduate Admissions Office
External System
University of London
Ground floor
Stewart House
32 Russell Square
London WC1B 5DN
Tel: +44 (0)20 7862 8376
Fax: +44 (0)20 7862 8363
Email: postgraduate_admissions@london.ac.uk

If you cannot send all the documentation with your application form, please enclose a letter with the form giving the reasons. We must receive your application form plus all documentary evidence and references in London by 31 May – if you intend to take your first examination in June (of the following year). If your application form or documentary evidence/references are received after this date, we may not be able to consider your application in time for you to register by the deadline for the next examination. You might have to postpone your first examination until the next sitting.

Stage 2

We will acknowledge receipt of your application form and send you a student number to use as a reference whenever you contact the University. Everyone who applies is allocated a number. You should receive an acknowledgement within three weeks of posting your application, but if you do not please contact the Postgraduate Admissions Office with details of your full name, the programme for which you have applied and the date you posted your form.

Stage 3

Your application will be considered only when we have received all your documentary evidence and both references. After due consideration you will be told if your application has been successful or not.

Note:

- if there is a delay in sending any of the documentation or your references we will have to wait to receive them before we can begin considering your application. This is because we need to have as much information about you as possible before we can reach a decision.

Stage 4

If your application has been successful we will send you:

- a conditional offer of registration. Please note that the offer of registration will be valid only for the year specified in the offer letter
- a fee slip for the registration and course fees (see 'Note' below)
- a registration form on which you indicate your choice of courses
- a copy of the Regulations.

Stage 5

To register, complete the registration form, fee slip. Return them as soon as possible and no later than 31 July, along with the registration fee plus the fees for the modules you will be taking at your first examination, to:

Postgraduate Registry
External System
University of London
Stewart House
32 Russell Square
London WC1B 5DN
Tel: +44 (0)20 7862 8377
Fax: +44 (0)20 7862 8238
Email: postgraduate.registry@london.ac.uk

Stage 6

When you register we will send you details of how to access the Virtual Learning Environment and other study materials by courier, as soon as possible after we receive the appropriate fees.

Note:

- You are asked to note that there is a limit to the number of students who can be registered for this programme. Therefore registration will only be confirmed on payment of the appropriate fee, if there is still a place available for that study year. A student whose registration is not confirmed will be made an offer to register for the following year instead.

Academic requirements

A good honours degree or equivalent, in a relevant discipline (eg. computer science, electronics, information systems, and mathematics), from an institution acceptable to the University of London.

English language

For all applicants a high level of competency in English is required. Applicants may be required to pass, or to have passed within the last three years, at the appropriate level, a test of proficiency in English acceptable to the University of London (e.g. TOEFL, IELTS, GCSE/GCE 'O' Level in English).

Mature students with industrial experience will be considered and are encouraged to apply.

Financial assistance

No financial assistance is available from the University. Some employers in both the public and the private sector may be willing to consider offering financial assistance to their employees.

Students who are resident in the UK may be able to apply for a Career Development Loan. Information can be obtained from the CDL Information Line on 0800 585 505 or from their website www.lifelonglearning.dfes.gov.uk/cdl

Disabled students who are resident in the UK may also be able to apply for a Disabled Student Allowance (DSA). For a copy of the information leaflet, which answers most of the questions commonly asked about DSAs, please contact either your LEA or the DIUS Information Line on 0800 731 9133 or on textphone 0800 210 280. The information is also available on audio tape or in braille. The guide is available on the DIUS website: www.dius.gov.uk/studentsupport

Students who are members of the UK Armed Forces should note that the University of London has been approved by the Ministry of Defence in support of the Enhanced Learning Credits (ELC) Scheme (ELC Provider Reference Number 1284). The Scheme provides financial support to eligible Service personnel who wish to enhance their educational or vocational achievements. The ELC administration Service website can be found at: www.enhancedlearningcredits.co.uk

Fees

The fees given below refer to the 2009/2010 academic year only and are subject to annual review.

| | |
|-----------------------------|----------------|
| Registration fee | £1,183 |
| Fee per module | £1,531 |
| Research project | £3,045 |
| TOTAL | |
| Postgraduate Diploma | £10,369 |
| MSc | £13,414 |

You can choose to pay the fees in one of two ways:

EITHER

Pay the total amount upfront when you register

OR

Pay as you go (a one-off registration fee plus a fee for each module).

SHORT COURSE STUDENTS

Pay a composite fee of £1,734 per module in the 2009/2010 academic year

Note: the University reserves the right to make additional charges for issuing revised or replacement study materials. In addition to the University's fees given above, if you are sitting examinations outside London you will have to pay a fee to your local examination centre to cover their costs.

Information for students with a disability and/or special needs

The University has a panel that considers applications for special examination arrangements. The aim of the panel is to ensure that a student with a disability/special needs is not advantaged or disadvantaged when compared with other students. If you have a disability/special need and may need to apply for special examination arrangements (such as extra time or special aids), or if you need to ask for your study materials to be provided in an alternative format (e.g. large print) you should complete the relevant section of the application form.

You should also write to the Special Examinations Services Department at the following address enclosing medical or other supporting evidence:
